B. Weight of the Evidence Against the Defendant (18 U.S.C. § 3142(g)(2):

1. On May 29, 2008, U. S. Border Patrol Agents encountered a group of six individuals, 29 miles west of Calexico International Boundary with Mexico. One of these individuals was later identified as Defendant. It was determined that all individuals were illegally in the United States.

REASONS FOR DETENTION

A. There is probable cause to believe that the Defendant committed the offense charged in Criminal Complaint No. 08MJ8494, namely, Deported alien Found in the United States (Felony), in violation of Title 8, United States Code, § 1326.

B. The Defendant faces a substantial period of time in custody if convicted of the offense charged in the Complaint. He, therefore, has a strong motive to flee.

C. Furthermore, the Defendant is a citizen of Mexico and has no legal right to live or work in the United States. Bail is, therefore, impractical as defendant if released on bail would be taken into immigration custody and remain in custody or would be deported and unavailable for further proceedings before this Court.

D. Based upon the Court's findings there is no condition or combination or conditions that will reasonably assure the appearance of the Defendant as required.

III

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Defendant be committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal.
